Bible's Orders

The host will call out

An event from the bible the "host" will call out a random event from the bible (all listed below) each event has an action that requires a specific amount of people everybody has to find the amount of people required for the event and do the action together those that can't find a group will be "out" and will have to sit on the other side of the room game will continue on until three people are left three remaining will become winners NOTE: all events/actions and directions will be on screen
